

Senior School Book Week 2018

Monday, 5 March

Start by reading your way through these slides so you know what's ahead of you this week. At the end of this PowerPoint, there will be a quick digital True or False Quiz. For House points send your Reading Ambassador/s to the library with your group's score.

DEAR – Drop Everything and READ! - tomorrow :)

Make sure you have a book with you at all times on the Tuesday you never know when you will have to stop what we are doing and READ!

Tuesday, 6 March

DEAR in lesson time as well!

Wednesday, 7 March

Today you have a serialized story which you will listen to in 7 instalments across the day – starting with the first instalment in Tutor Time! (Teachers here is the link to the story, and there are printed versions in the staff room as well)

Lunchtime Debate!

Come to the library first half of lunch today. Listen to experienced debaters battle out the proposition:

That reading brings us together rather than being a solo act

Thursday, 8 March

Today you will have a Kahoot Quiz so make sure you have devices on hand. The link will be here and will also be in the morning announcements. Choose Kahoot Classic. You can have as many people or groups playing as you like. Just send your tutor group's highest score to the library for possible House points.

Spot the book!

Your teachers will be carrying a favourite book around with them today. Earn House points by using the entry form available in the library to record as many as possible.

Friday, 9 March

Today is dress-up day! We look forward to seeing you dressed as a book character. Don't forget to hand in your $2 donation for our sister school in Cambodia. Have your Reading Ambassador/s bring the money to the library to be passed on to Finance.

Come to the library!

Please come to the library and show us your costume today. I am keen to get lots of photos so that we can keep a record of the event.
