To do it, he needs Pip, a boy with an incredible gift; and the Raft King is not above kidnapping to get what he wants. Pip's sister, though, is determined to rescue her brother and foil the Raft King's plans. A gorgeous story of morality, the power of storytelling and the cyclical nature of history.

THE LOSERS CLUB

Andrew Clements | $ 13.80

Alec can't put a good book down. So when the principal lays down the law - pay attention, or else - Alec starts a club. A club he intends to be the only member of. After all, reading isn't a team sport, and no one would want to join something called the Losers Club, right? But as more kids find their way to the club, he realises words like loser and bookworm are just labels and they don't tell the whole story. Maybe it's time the Losers Club members take their story.

THE ONES THAT DISAPPEARED

Zana Fraillon | $ 15

Esra, Miran and Isa work for the Snakeskin gang, tending to plants in the dark and airless basement of a house they are not allowed to leave. They've been told that they belong to the Snakeskins. But Esra knows that's not her truth and Esra has something to say: it's fierce, wild, strong and a little magical too. A powerful and moving story of three trafficked children searching for freedom and hope.
